

Discover Whinny Hill—WINTER TREE ID WALK

Amble Not a Ramble

A relaxed circular walk and a chance to learn to identify trees from their twigs, buds, fruit or seeds during National Tree Week.

Wildlife & Nature

Meet New Friends

Have a Natter

Take Photographs

Gentle Exercise

Prams welcome

Dogs Welcome on a Lead

FREE WALKS

Everyone Welcome

Wednesday, 27th November 2019 start at 10:00am @ the entrance to Accrington Cricket Club at the end of Thorneyholme Road, nearest postcode: BB5 6BD. Grid Ref SD763298 Meet at 0950 please.

Walk leader from PROSPECTS, No need to book, Suitable for all including those who cannot walk very far or too fast and more active walkers who generally walk far and fast but want time to enjoy a relaxing walk, Take in Points of Interest, Share local Knowledge and History, Stop and Rest Points, Wear good footwear and suitable clothing. Only one dog per walker.

For more information contact: Barbara Sharples, Activity Organiser,

The PROSPECTS Foundation, Tel 01254-230348

or drop in for a chat at the

PROSPECTS Environment Centre, Broadway, Accrington BB5 1EW

Email barbara.sharples@prospectsfoundation.org.uk

